

PECADO

(Sinn)

Shortcut from João Sanchez,
PAGÁRENDA Productions
Lisbon, 2016

Participation as Actress (in the role of Maria) and Costume Designer.

In search of higher pleasures and adrenaline, Maria, a young catholic-educated shaved-hair girl, enters the Punk World with no time for consequences. A parallel between Maria's education and her day-to-day life; among long nights at underground bars, aggressive gigs, emotional situations.

Domingos, Nara and Maria; Father, Son and The Holy Ghost, live an intimate relationship. Nara dies on her lap. Domingos attends. Twenty years later, every week, she meets Aurora (Nara's Grandmother) for a cup of tea - unwittingly recalling her sins willing for pardon. A spoonful of sugar, a religious third.
